About the Filmmaker

Dan Habib (pictured left) is the creator of Including Samuel and the new film Who Cares About Kelsey? Habib is the Filmmaker in Residence at the Institute on Disability at the University of New Hampshire. Habib's films have been screened at universities, national conferences and independent theatres and have been used a catalyst for inclusive education across the country and internationally. Including Samuel was broadcast nationwide on public television and was nominated for an Emmy in 2010. Before joining UNH in April of 2008, Habib was the photography editor of the Concord (NH) Monitor. In 2006 and 2008, he was named the national Photography Editor of the Year and he has been a judge of the Pulitzer Prizes and the Best of Photojournalism. He is a six-time New Hampshire photographer of the year and his freelance work has appeared in Time, Newsweek and the New York Times. In 2012, Habib received the Champion of Human and Civil Rights Award from the National Education Association. Habib and his wife, Betsy, live in Concord, New Hampshire, with their sons Isaiah, 16, and Samuel, 13.

Reading Coalition Against Substance Abuse

RCASA's mission is to promote a healthy community environment so that everyone who lives or works in Reading can enjoy an optimum quality of life. To address our problem that a significant number of youth in Reading, MA use alcohol, drugs, and tobacco; RCASA focuses on seven community change strategies to reduce substance abuse (see below for strategies).

- Providing Information
- Enhancing Skills
- Providing Support
- Access to Healthy Opportunities & Reducing Barriers
- Changing Consequences (Incentives/Disincentives)
- Physical Design
- Modifying/Changing Policies
