ROTARY CLUB OF HANFORD

presents

Third Annual
Ethics in Business Award Luncheon

Rotary's annual award to individuals recognized for their high ethical standards in business and society.

Keynote Speaker

Dan Walters

Political Columnist, Sacramento Bee

At the age of 22, Dan Walters was the nation's youngest daily newspaper editor for The Hanford Sentinel. In 1975, Walters joined The Sacramento Union's capitol bureau as Jerry Brown began his governorship. Walters later became the Union's capital bureau chief. In 1981, he began writing the state's only daily newspaper column devoted to California political, economic and social events. In 1984, he and the column moved to the Sacramento Bee. He has written more than 7,500 articles about California and its politics; his column now appears in more than 50 California newspapers. In addition, he has written, co-authored, and contributed to several books. Walters is a frequent guest on national television commenting on California politics.

Public Invited

Thursday, November 10
11:45 a.m. - 1:30 p.m.
Tickets: $10 and a can of food for Salvation Army and St. Vincent de Paul

Tickets may be purchased at the following locations:
COS Hanford, 925 13th Avenue, Hanford
Fashion Cleaners, 1790 N. 11th Avenue, Hanford
VanAndel's Menswear, 210 W. 7th Street, Hanford

Luncheon to be held at:

COLLEGE of the SEQUOIAS
HANFORD

Education Building
925 13th Avenue
(between Lacey and Grangeville)
Hanford, CA 93230
583.2500

You may park in the lot on the north side of the COS campus. In addition, you may park in Sierra Pacific High School's lot on the south side of their campus. A shuttle will be available for those who need assistance.

Parking, a map, and other information may be found at: www.cos.edu/hanford