1. Pidgin is a very basic language that is used to communicate between cultures. The word pidgin is derived from:

   d) The Chinese pronunciation of the English word business http://www.wisegeek.com/what-is-pidgin.htm

2. Frank Laubach's Each One Teach One concept might aptly be completed with the following phrase:

   b) Or die
   http://www.laubachventura.org/about/the-frank-laubach-story.html

3. Which American president and his wife spoke Chinese when they didn't want other people to know what they were saying:

   c) Herbert and Lou Hoover http://www.npr.org/2012/01/29/146062632/bilingualism-a-political-liability