Nap time!

It's 98 degrees,
I had a tough day at the groomers
and its time for a refreshing nap.

Feeling pretty!

I think the groomer did a really nice job this time. Don't you?

Do you like the pretty bow they put on my head?

Meet Tammy
Deering & Shimen

Bravo!'s Midwestern Regional Sales Manager

Full Name: Shimen Deering

Breed: Shiba Inu

Shimen looks right at home!

Funny Story: When he was a puppy we bought him this little stuffed toy that plays jingle bells, 4 years later we still have the toy however it has been put back together so many times that it only comes out once at year at the holidays. We can play the song from the other room and he goes crazy every time! He remembers exactly what it is year after year.
