Dear Sir or Madame,

First let me assure you that I am not a PR agent for the management staff or maintenance crew here at Southwinds apartments in Narragansett, RI.

We recently received notification, from Jeanne the manager of this complex, that the staff would be having an 'Appreciation Week' for the tenants.

Are you kidding me?? It is we who should be having an appreciation month for them. I'm sure when you read the enclosed schedule that you will find it is probably a first at any of your properties. If you check the weather for Thursday June 21st you'll find that the temperature was 93 degrees, heat index 101 degrees in Narragansett. They worked tirelessly without let up for the entire two hours. Wash, rinse and wipe. Give me a break!! My car was the last through and won the dirtiest care prize.

If any of your other properties need to learn how it's done, send them to Jeanne and staff. They'll clue them in.

Sincerely Yours,

Bob & Winnie McGinity
