Suicide TALK

SuicideTALK is a campus/ community oriented program exploring issues in suicide prevention and suicide prevention resources. This basic presentation is a condensed yet meaningful interactive program useful in dealing with many of the concerning student behaviors experienced in our work settings daily. SuicideTALK is most effective when used with a broad range of college participants including faculty, administration, students, frontline supervisors and other staff and comes highly recommended for anyone in a position working directly with students.

Presenting the Workshop is Russ Crabtree, BestMinds
