

Key West, Miami & The Everglades

Key West is a place you can visit over and over. Warm weather (even in winter the average high is 76, the average low 66) is the norm. Because of the intimate nature of this tour, it is limited to just 30 travelers and annually sells out several months ahead of departure.

Itinerary

Arrive Into: Ft. Lauderdale, FL by 4:00 PM at Fort Lauderdale-Hollywood International Airport (FLL)

Depart From: Key West, FL after 12:00 PM from Key West International Airport (EYW)

DAY 1 – Arrive in Ft. Lauderdale

Arrive in Ft. Lauderdale in the late afternoon. At a local Brazilian steakhouse enjoy a unique dinner with an international twist. Courtyard by Marriott Ft. Lauderdale, FL (D)

DAY 2 – Experience The Beaches & The Everglades

Our morning city tour delivers you to Florida Everglades National Park. Board an air boat for a short Everglades experience to learn about this delicate and fragile environment. Back in Miami, there's time for lunch on your own, followed by a tour of famous South Beach, Coconut Grove and Coral Gables. It's an hour to Key Largo, made famous in story and song. Enjoy dinner tonight at The Fish House, a local favorite.

Hampton Inn, Key Largo, FL (CB,D)

DAY 3 – Key Largo & Key West

Begin the day with a ride on the glass bottom boat that plies the largest living coral reef off our coast(s). Next, it's on down the Intracoastal Highway you go, the Atlantic Ocean on one side and the Gulf of Mexico on the other. Arrive in Key West, the literal end of the highway, in late afternoon. Tonight, a glorious welcome dinner on the top floor of your hotel, the "Top of the Conch," perhaps one of the most famous sunset watching spots in these United States. Crowne Plaza La Concha, Key West, FL (CB,D)

DAYS 4-6 – Exploring Key West

From Hemingway to Tennessee Williams to Robert Frost, many famous artisans have called the Keys home. Dozens of ships were wrecked on its reefs. Visit the homes of two famous Americans, Harry Truman and Ernest Hemingway. Tour the area aboard the famous Old Town Trolley, stop in search of buried treasure at the Shipwreck Museum and visit the "Little White House," frequented by presidents Eisenhower, Kennedy and Truman. Nature enthusiasts will enjoy the Butterfly & Nature Conservatory and the Key West Aquarium. Cruise along the shores of the island on an authentic clipper ship (you can opt out of this activity and receive a refund if you aren't a "water" person). Walk to dozens of the shops, restaurants and attractions from your hotel.

Who doesn't like to eat on vacation? How about lunch where the Sloppy Joe was invented, or a midday meal in one of the funkier "joints" you'll ever wander into? There's a great Italian dinner, plus a dinner and cabaret show in the Key West tradition you'll never forget. Breakfast is included each morning at your hotel. Crowne Plaza La Concha, Key West, FL (3B,2L,2D)

DAY 7 – Depart Paradise For Home

It's time to leave our island paradise and head for home. Your return flight leaves directly from Key West. (B)
