Dialogues on Human Rights

This series of talks sponsored by ICJ Canada will give local ICJ members and the Ottawa human rights community at large the opportunity to hear from people working in the area of human rights in very different ways that invite discussion and exchange.

Wednesday, Oct. 24, 2012

Robin Sully, Director of International Development, Canadian Bar Association

Rule of law – a framework for development?

Monday, February 4, 2013

Madam Justice Anne Mactavish, Federal Court of Canada

Human Rights, National Security and the Federal Court

Wednesday, March 20, 2013

Peter Showler, Adjunct Professor and Director of Refugee Forum, University of Ottawa

Crossing the Great Divide: Changes in Canada's Refugee System

All the talks will be held from 6:00 to 7:30 p.m. in the Jury
Assembly Room of the Ottawa Court House
at 161 Elgin Street.

Because the talks will be held in the courthouse after hours, it is necessary that an attendance list be prepared before each talk. Series ticket holders will automatically be registered. Others will need to register by noon on the Tuesday before each talk.

To reserve series tickets or to register for individual talks, please call (613) 237-2925 ext. 125 and leave your name and phone number or send this information to patw@cba.org.
