

MEDIA RELEASE - FOR IMMEDIATE USE

Auckland, New Zealand, [12.August.2010]

Graeme has been shooting adventure photography and mountain biking for seven years. In 2006 he curated the world's first international mountain bike photo exhibition. The film "from Prep to Page" gives unique behind-the-scenes insights for photographers interested in outdoor location photography and seeing how published work gets made.

The film features a cameo from Carena West, orbis™ muse and FHM Australia's 'Ultimate Girl Next Door'. Carena has also starred in various TV shows including Celebrity Treasure Island and the high octane Girl Racers reality TV series.

enlight photo have produced several short videos for online release, which include instructional lighting tutorials, behind-the-scenes photo shoots and TV news features.

enlight photo are the creators of the award winning orbis™ ring flash, which makes an appearance in the film, bringing portable studio lighting to the heart of the forest. The team are hard at work preparing the launch of their third exciting product, the frio™; see www.friocoldshoe.com for updates.
