

Connecting Lives, Sharing Cultures

Ever thought about hosting an exchange student from France? AFS Intercultural Programs, for international exchanges, is looking for families in Portland willing to share their lives with a student from France or other countries around the world. As a member of the Alliance Française de Portland, you have special insight into French students' customs that can help make their exchange a greater success. You can reconnect with French culture while making a lifelong connection with a high school exchange student. AFS also sends US students abroad to France and over 40 different other countries to have their own overseas adventure. Scholarships and financial aid are available.

Make a life-changing experience for a student: Host with AFS!

Felix a 16 year old boy from France: For a long time, it has been Felix's great dream to come and live abroad in the United States of America. He is really interested in American culture and wants to experience it to the fullest. Felix's interests include cooking, playing video games, chatting on the Skype program, and watching movies. He loves being outdoors, which is why his favorite season is summer. During this season, he likes to spend as much time as he can outside. Felix is described as easygoing and friendly.

Details on opportunities to host Felix (and two other students) are in the following pages!

For further information about any of these opportunities, please visit www.afsusa.org. Or, call your local AFS representative, Shaun Sullens, at (503) 419-9509. Email: ssullens@afsusa.org
