

JOBS FOR WRITERS & EDUCATORS @ WRITERS IN THE SCHOOLS (WITS)

Want to make a difference in the lives of children?

WITS is looking for writers and educators who can teach the joy of creative writing to young people. Employment is part-time, typically a half-day of teaching one day a week from September - May. A yearlong commitment is required.

The pay is $55 per teaching hour. In addition to teaching, the job duties include preparing lessons, responding to student work, and compiling anthologies of student writing at the end of the school year.

We are looking for writers with teaching or mentoring experience who can convey their passion for the written word in ways that are relevant for Houston area children. In particular, we are seeking bilingual writers, but others are encouraged to apply, as well.

If you are interested in teaching with WITS, please submit a cover letter, résumé with 3 references, and 10-page writing sample:

by email to mail@witshouston.org

or by mail to: 1523 West Main, Houston, TX 77006

Applications are accepted year-round. To be considered for the 2011-2012 school year, applications must be received by August 5, 2011. Applications received after August 5 will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis.
