Agency Happenings

Show Us Your Photos and Win a Free Hotel Stay and $50 Gift Card!

OACAA is having a photo contest and we want to see your pictures of Community Action in Action! That means we want pictures of activities happening around your agency, whether it's a training program, a home being weatherized, a Head Start classroom or someone receiving assistance, we want to see it! Post your pictures on our Face Book page between December 3 through December 7 and you could win big!

How it Works

This contest is open to everyone – Community Action staff, clients, board members, whoever wants to submit a photo - and you can submit as many photos as you like, but the photos must be of work or activities being performed by a Community Action Agency in Ohio. The photos can be old or new, just be sure to include a brief caption that describes what is happening in the photo. Photos can be submitted by posting them on our Face Book page starting December 3 through December 7. After that the voting will begin for the best photo to determine the winners!

Voting begins December 8 and is open to everyone as well. You can vote as many times as you like, but only once per day through December 14. Whichever photo receives the most votes will be deemed the grand prize winner and receive one night's free stay at the Sheraton on Capitol Square in Columbus and a $50 gift card from American Express! The photo with the second most votes will receive a free night's stay at the Doubletree Hotel Worthington-Columbus!

The winner will be announced on December 17. Be sure to follow along on Face Book and tell all your friends and family to vote for your photo!
