

JOY?

By: Roberta Simmons-Smith

ALL: Joy to the World...

#1: Joy? I'll feel the Joy...as soon as this traffic begins to move!! (Honks horn) Come on MOVE!! I'm going to miss the sale at Bath and Body Works!!

ALL: The Lord has come...

#2: (busily cooking/baking) The Lord? Not only has HE decided to come, but so has half my office for this Christmas party tonight!! It was supposed to be a little get together, I knew I shouldn't have told Beatrice...she's got such a big mouth! Whats that smell? (takes fruit cake out of oven) Oh no....my fruit cake is ruined!!

ALL: Let earth receive her King...

#3: King! I forgot to fix the crown of the third king!! How on earth will little Jeremy find his way into the nativity with his eyes covered! I have one hour before the show begins!! There is no way I'm going to get it done in time!! This is a disaster!!

ALL: Let every heart, prepare him room...

#4: I have no room!! How many times have I told you dear...that we can't fit your entire family in our house over Christmas. You do this every year, you go ahead and invite them and assume that it is o.k with me! Well, we have no room! And besides, your cousin Ron is getting way to big to sleep with his parents now....he's 40!!

ALL: And Heaven and Nature Sing...

#1: Finally!! It only took me 2 hours!! Oooo, I love this scent! I love Christmas!

ALL: And Heaven and Nature Sing...

#2: Hello!! So glad you could come this evening – Merry Christmas!

ALL: And Heaven and Nature Sing...

#3: Jeremy is doing such a good job, granted, he did trip over the manger...but he looks like an angel☺

ALL: And Heaven and Nature Sing...

#4: It is so wonderful to have all of you here this Christmas AGAIN. I wouldn't have it any other way.

ALL: And Heav'n and Heav'n and Nature Sing.

#1: Don't wait until Christmas is over...

#2: to experience the true Joy that comes...

#3: with the coming of our Lord and Saviour...

#4: the Holy Child Jesus Christ.

ALL: Joy to the world, our Lord has come.
