

Calling All Writers!

Terry Leyenberger is the Northwoods "Unofficial" historian and he is looking for stories. Terry would like to produce an updated history to celebrate the 35th anniversary of Northwoods in 2013. He is looking for authors who will write a story about a particular part of the life of the church. The focus of each story should be on the time from between 2008 and 2013 and be no more than 800 words. The idea is to capture the story of the church through its programs. Each story accepted for the official history will carry the authors name in the byline. Deadline for story submissions is December 2nd, 2013. Please send submissions to Terry via email at terrylgeo@gmail.com.

Ideas include such items as 1) the history of the folk choir, 2) the importance of the new bylaws in helping the church move to a "program" church, 3) how has whole life RE impacted the kids in our church, 4) who created the Art display in the Garden room and why, 5) What do kitchen angels do, 6) how has the DBLE impacted our church, 7) How much money has Share the Plate donated to charity and which charities. You get the idea.

Terry as editor reserves the right to accept or reject stories, or ask the authors to combine stories if they are similar or cover the same subject material.
