

For the past five plus decades, the Sedona Library and its Friends group have marched hand-in-hand steadfastly on the path to bring you, our patrons, the best, newest, fastest and friendliest services available.

To Sedona's library, "service" is not just smiling at its customers even though our dedicated corps of professional staff and 150 volunteers (that log more than 20,000 hours each year) excel at doing just that. Every person that works at or gives their time to your library believes in what the Sedona Public Library accomplishes for you each and every day.

Being privately owned and operated since 1958, your library can not depend on municipal coffers to keep its doors open. Although it receives funds through annual contracts with the City of Sedona and both Coconino and Yavapai counties for providing core services to area residents, this funding falls short of what is necessary to operate your library at the level that you have come to expect and enjoy.

The Friends of the Sedona Library (FOL) annual membership drive was once the primary source of library revenue. FOL now provides more than $100,000 annually toward the library's budget. Book sales and other fund raisers bring in more than half of this amount but the FOL membership drive is still a priority. As a book lover and library user, your financial assistance is always vital and much appreciated.

Without annual support from FOL, the Sedona Public Library would be financially hampered. FOL, in the past year, has provided support for the new RFID (Radio Frequency Identification) system that allows for easier use by volunteers and, yes, self check out of books and other library materials! FOL also funded a major relocation of the library's collection to facilitate easier user access, scholarships to a summer teen drama program and funds to fulfill a grant to purchase five lap top computers for the Village library center. FOL always entirely pays for the popular children's summer reading program.

Your all volunteer FOL Board of Directors is dedicated to seeing that the maximum amount of your contribution goes directly to benefitting the library. FOL has no employees and no debt. No glossy brochures, frivolous expenditures or unnecessary costs to diminish the value of your support.

Make your FOL charitable gift today. For less than the price of a single hard cover book, your donation will help preserve and enhance key library services. "Be a Friend". Your generosity is invaluable.

I WANT TO "BE A FRIEND" AND SUSTAIN LIBRARY SERVICES.
