Why we do it...

We're passionate about the practice of law.
We know why we're here. The following comments are from a few of our clients:

"I have never seen a lawyer work so hard for her client. I will always go to her, she covers all of the bases."

"Thank you for letting me bring my children with me to my appointments."

"You are the first attorney I've come across who didn't talk down to me, who listened and spoke to me, not at me."

"She has always been there since the car accident and throughout the process. Always empathetic, knowledgeable of my feelings, and possible outcomes. I always felt taken care of!"

"How can I thank you for all you have done for me? That the bank forgave all deficiencies and didn't ask for a cash contribution or promissory note — I couldn't have hoped for a better outcome."

Where Deep Insight Equals Powerful Advantage

For over 25 years, we've been helping Charlottesville clients overcome life's most difficult situations. The trials weren't always easy, but the following client comment couldn't have said it any better about us – it's why we became lawyers:

"Thank you for giving me my life back."

What sets us apart. It's our experience and deep knowledge. Each attorney concentrates in only one or two specific areas of the law. We think this level of intense focus helps us to thoroughly understand and resolve your issues.

What gives us our unique point of view. Many of our attorneys and staff are parents. We understand the challenges clients face in juggling work, family and community responsibilities. We have created numerous family-friendly work place initiatives that benefit our staff, and our clients. Children are always welcome at our firm.

Please call or email us when you need legal advice. No case is too large or too small for us to evaluate. We're a full-service law firm with deep roots in the community, and we want to serve you.
