WFCM Cares

Originally formed in 1987 by concerned Centreville and Chantilly churches, Western Fairfax Christian Ministries (WFCM) provides compassionate, life-essential services to reduce hunger and the risk of homelessness among the working poor and those in chronic financial crises. Our goal is to empower and encourage clients to achieve financial self-sufficiency.

We Need Your Help NOW!

In 2012, WFCM served 3,272 people with food, clothing, rent and utility assistance. We rely on financial support from businesses, churches, schools and individuals to support our programs.

- Over 62,000 people live below poverty level in Fairfax County
- 1 in 6 children go to school hungry in Northern Virginia
- Over 69,000 Fairfax County residents are at risk of experiencing hunger.
- 1,350 people are homeless in the Fairfax-Falls Church community; children in families accounted for one third (452)
- 24 percent of households in Northern Virginia do not earn enough to meet basic monthly expenditures such as food, housing, and transportation.

Join WFCM to Prevent Homelessness and Hunger

WFCM is a proud beneficiary of Fannie Mae's Help the Homeless (HTH) Program which raises awareness and funds to prevent homelessness. 100% of all registration fees support WFCM and its client assistance programs for families in need in our community.
