West Texas Aoudad Hunts

Aoudad hunting has been fast and furious in 2012. Texas is home to more free-ranging aoudad sheep than their native North Africa. Aoudad Sheep are exceptionally sporty animals, combining wary nature with tough physical hardiness likened to a Cape buffalo. If you are truly interested in a great, challenging and rewarding experience, our free-range Texas aoudad sheep hunting may be your ticket.

H. Yturria Ranch

Good things just keep happening down on the Yturria Ranch. Many a nilgai have fallen to the swift bullet of our hunters. Greg Powell, one of our nilgai hunters said this, "Everything went exactly as described. Rudy and Ruben did a great job and we all enjoyed our hunt and camp setting very much. We will be back to shoot a scimitar". Another one of our hunters, Tom King, said "The whole hunting experience, lodging and food were excellent. It was great to see all of the exotic animals on the ranch. Ruben did a great job of guiding. I really appreciate a guide that goes the extra mile to help a hunter fill his tag and keep his sense of humor. See below for pictures of our nilgai hunts.
