INSTRUMENTS FOR PEACE

JYOTI

Jyoti (Jeneane Prevatt, PhD) is one of the founders of Kayumari, a spiritual healing community, and Spiritual Director of the Center for Sacred Studies, a church dedicated to protecting and sustaining the spiritual practices of first-nation peoples around the world as they join their hearts in a prayer for world peace. From that effort, The International Council of Thirteen Indigenous Grandmothers has evolved. Jyoti is an internationally renowned spiritual adviser and psychological consultant. She has devoted her life to bringing unity to the planet by facilitating the development of alliances between individuals who are the guardians of indigenous culture and traditional medicine ways. Jyoti is the Traveling Ambassador for the International Council of Thirteen Indigenous Grandmothers.
