

BC Business Network

<http://trade.britishcolumbia.ca/buy/bcbusinessnetwork/>

ACTION:

Profile your company to those looking to create or develop potential business opportunities in BC and abroad

RESULTS:

- Find suitable partners to facilitate:
 - subcontracting
 - partnering
 - supply and service opportunities
- Connect with:
 - valuable contacts
 - contract opportunities
 - events that may lead to new business
- Exposure to an international audience
- Receive communication about:
 - educational and capacity-building resources
 - market intelligence
 - inbound/outbound trade programs
- Exclusive invitations to:
 - valuable workshops
 - information sessions
 - networking events
 - matchmaking sessions

Connect to opportunity

The BC Business Network is an online database that allows British Columbia companies to profile themselves to local, national and internationally engaged businesses looking to create or develop potential business opportunities in BC and abroad.

In addition to providing exposure of your company to international clients, the BC Business Network allows BC's international trade network support your company with timely business opportunities, information, and introductions. After you complete your free registration, you can expect the following services:

1. Customized business intelligence specific to your industry and markets — information such as the latest deals, stats, economic news and market trends.
2. Advanced business support through invites to workshops, information sessions and trade events that can put you in touch with valuable clients and resources.
3. Unlimited access to BC's international network of trade offices — offering 'in market' services such as local market knowledge, introductions, and strategic advice.
4. Referrals from the Ministry of Jobs, Tourism and Innovation when our international clients are seeking products, services and investment opportunities in British Columbia.

Join over 4,500 British Columbia companies looking to create or develop potential business opportunities in BC and abroad

What could this mean for your business?

Exposure to key businesses in BC

The BC Business Network allows domestic companies to profile themselves to international business visitors looking for trade and investment opportunities in BC and abroad. BC Business Network members can search for potential business partners and be found by others planning to take on new business opportunities.

Exposure to an international audience

The BC Business Network receives regular inquiries from international businesses interested in engaging in trade and investment opportunities and partnerships. Membership in the BC Business Network puts businesses in front of this valuable group.

Partnering and networking opportunities

International and local companies are searching for businesses that complement their products and services and want to join forces on bidding or subcontracting opportunities. BC Business Network members can search for potential business partners and be found by others looking to partner on a potential business venture.

Exclusive Invitations

The BC Ministry of Jobs, Tourism and Innovation and its partners host valuable workshops, information sessions, networking events in addition to a variety of matchmaking sessions and other related business engagement programs. BC Business Network Members will always be up-to-date on these opportunities.

How does your business become a member?

Membership to the BC Business Network is free, It requires only a simple online registration and completion of a company profile at <http://trade.britishcolumbia.ca/buy/bcbusinessnetwork/>
Companies from around the world are welcome to join. Make sure to mention which countries you are currently working with or considering.