Dear Richard,
I heard your first performance. You were just awesome. Congratulations!!!!
I am so grateful for receiving your guidance and now, being able to listen the vibration of your voice. That is super!

My question is... what is the secret to manifest the perfect job.?

I have been writing in a journal, making my affirmations, visualizations, being positive, letting go fears and negative feelings and thanking for already having the perfect job. I have also been applying on line everyday expecting good things.. Hope you answer my question on the radio.

Last year, I turned 50.... It was a challenging year, I was overworked, overstressed and I became very depressed. I sold my business and an investment property - I thought I was going down and would never recover financially or psychologically. A friend turned me on to your daily messages and I am so happy to say that I am in the final stages of having made a total recovery. I live by your philosophy and have learned to be happy regardless of my current work status (I am a deli girl in a grocery store) and regardless of how others treat me (my boss is a bully). My future is bright and I have to thank you and your daily messages for being such a HUGE part of the healing process..... I hope you enjoy a long and prosperous life, you are making a great mark in this world for many of your followers... so thank you so, so much!!!!!!

My good friend, xxxx, gave me the best present I ever got, namely a copy of your book, Thoughts Make You Wealthy...and it's a signed copy, that is quite special since this philosophy is changing my life...I divorced a wife and a life last July and am still readjusting my life after 33 yrs. of marriage, finally getting enough nerve to start the next chapter in life...and your sharing of ideas about "thoughts" is already changing my life...it's true, after just a few weeks, I can see and feel the thoughts work on my life...it is right in line with hypnosis and emotional freedom technique that I employ...I really just wish to thank you for such a great writing and for signing the book, personally to me.....and thank you again and much more success to you...I'm so impressed that you write back...thank you...what you say in words makes my life so much more full...thank you for sharing and I wish all who read your words or listen to you, much success and prosperity, even if they already have it...and you as well...Just to say, I am open the universe, as open as can be for now, and to be even more so as days go on and I "get it" more deeply...

Peace in the present

J.

Greetings Richard!

I caught your radio show yesterday. Congrats!! I learned and relearned a few things. Congrats to you for the show and I'm thoroughly excited to catch you every week.

Between your video and radio show I realize that person I'm angry at directly relating to my finances is my dad. My anger runs deep very deep. Kinda explains why I'm struggling so much. When are you doing your show on anger? The reason I ask is because I love my father and am grateful for the time I spent with him while he was on earth but I am angry at him (and me for feeling this way) for how he ran my family's finances and in the ways it has directly affected my life. Awareness is a bitch sometimes...hahaha...cuz you realize all the gunk and have to learn to deal with it..

Now in the process of clearing out more clutter...downsizing and clearing out for a new life...a new start. I find it all overwhelming. But it's good. Sometimes I feel like fear of success and anger cripples your life but really it's just excuses of why you can keep the same and not improve your life.

Congrats! Trying to figure it all out just like everyone else. I appreciate the work you do!

J.D.

Needed this one. Have recently been so angry at someone that I love that I felt toxic. Had to just feel it for a little bit. Now I am sending her all kinds of sweet thoughts of joy and abundance!

G.W.

Richard. Today's exercise was even more enlightening. I sent thought of love & encouragement to 10 people; I sent thoughts of wealth to 10 people & I sent thoughts of more wealth to a client so he will be able to sustain & grow his current lifestyle. I also sent thoughts of wealth to my current sources of daily encouragement & especially you most of all to continue & grow what you all give to us.

I felt great doing this exercise & I continue it. Thank you again. Lynda

Richard,

Our compliments on your prosperity seminar.

The 'Richard says' quotes continue as a reference so very often. The girls then say - 'whose this Richard?'. It was no surprise to see a first class presentation from such a first class gentlemen. Namaste.

Richard,

This is profoundly true. That being "nice" to rude and abusive people does not protect you from harm. My mom used to say, "Kill them with Kindness". And she has been walked over her entire life.

Thank you for this. I am a psychotherapist and I use your passages often. I am looking forward to purchasing your book. Have a lovely day!

Warmly,
Gina West

Good morning Richard,

Yes it is true, sometimes, we create a tragedy in our lives, by scary thoughts, and we just start doubting our reaching success..The truth is, that we are not far from reaching our goal!!!Today, I have a brand new vision of hope and victory, things will get better friend!!

You are the best and THANKS a million for this message!

R.A.

Richard,

Thank you so very much for your response and encouraging words. Everything you said is so true. I have been focusing on the negativity and not putting my heart and energy into focusing on what I'm grateful for. Essentially, I've allowed the negativity to consume me. I will take your words of advice to heart and will (for the sake of myself & my family) begin a gratefulness journal and shift my focus back to the life of my dreams. I'll also get a copy of your book :)

I truly appreciate you getting back to me and that you care enough about others to reach out and help.

Bless you,
T.M.

You're so cool! I don't suppose I've read anything like this ahead of. So nice to uncover somebody with some original thoughts on this subject. I really thank you for starting this up. This site is something that's necessary on the web, somebody having a small originality. Useful job for bringing some thing new to the net!

T.H.

I am receiving your inspiring and motivating messages. I truly believe that it is by our own positive (visual) thoughts (desires and goals) which manifests/creates our reality.

Thank you with gratitude for your insight.
A.J.

Dear Richard,
Thanks for you daily encouragement. It lifts my spirit to read your positive thoughts.
Gratefully, J.D.

Richard. Everyday your message is great. TODAY [February 23]. It is spectacular - still challenging times but I will not give in 2 defeat as long as I have one breath left & a mind 2 think & heart 2 love.

Richard I've followed you for about a year now. I would like to let you know that on Tuesday I got a dream job. I've been looking for roughly 4 years going from one little job to another knowing in my heart that I just needed to keep my head up do the next right thing and eventually when the time was right every thing would fall into place. I feel that my remaining positive being grateful for what I had sharing my gratitude with others is the reason this is why this happened for me. Now I have to realize that this still isn't quite what I want. However if I continue to take these baby steps that are put in front of me. Eventually that in time my BIG dream will come true. It's all about being grateful for what we have not losing site of the big picture being willing to be tolerant of trying times knowing that the tough times will pass, and that what I think about will come about. Just staying positive has truly changed my life. I share you with other people in my life and I see the change in their lives also.

God's gifts come wrapped in people you are a great gift.

Dear Richard,

Every time I read your daily message I am reminded of Dr. Norman Vincent Peale and his Power Of Positive Thinking. When I have a positive life experience it is because I am a positive thinker. Thanks for you daily reminders.
Love you, Jim

Dear Richard,

I practiced making affirmations: " I am wealth", "I am prosperity". And today, when I was doing my taxes, very amazed of what happened, money is coming to me.. It really works! .Positive energy is in action!!!
I know, that the job I want, is coming to me soon too...even though, sometimes, I have second thoughts 🙄 and get discouraged..
Patience is the cue, right?

Thank you for your valuable support!
Renee

Hi Richard I'm very pleased with the emails that I've been receiving; I had fear which I didn't know where it was coming from, I also didn't believe in myself that I can make it one day because of disadvantageous family that I came from but thanks to God your emails have changed my life completely; there's a new man in my life and he's willing to take me back to Varsity so that I can further my studies since I only had matric. Now I'm dying to get your book, I'm in South Africa(Johannesburg)Can I get it here? If the whole world had people like you...it will be different; Thank you very much!!! Lizette

Hi! I have read your daily thoughts for over one year and I have to let you know that I can testify about the power of affirmation. I have repeated what I wanted out loud daily and guess what: I affirmed exceeding well for my daughter's grades and I affirmed that I was driving a vehicle that I wanted. The vehicle came brand new in 2012 and my daughter's grades went high up. I thank you and am now going to see how I can buy your book. Thank you.

Richard... your book & lessons are truly life changing! Thank you for sharing this info. It has made an amazing difference in my life.

Greeting's, first of all thanks for the inspiration each day! I now have the courage to pursue speaking in public about the laws of attraction.

Thx for a great read of your book, Richard!! I am such a believer in clearing out the clutter, whether it comes to 'things' or negative people;-) I started reading this book at a transitional point in my life (new job, and getting rid of toxic people), I really noticed a difference!!

I'm learning to just say 'thank-you' more, and letting go of silly things from the past. I believe that's what was holding me back from finding the partner I truly deserve....with the small changes I've made after reading this book, I can't wait to see what the future holds!!!!

Dear Richard,

I have been doing the wealth affirmations every day. When I had finished writing I Am Success, Health, Wealth, etc. on Monday Night, I received a phone call from my sister telling me she would send me a substantial sum from my dad's estate. The same day I finished writing a book I had been working on for two years. I then received a phone call from someone who had seen an ad I put in the supermarket weeks ago. I told her the price of the item and said if the price was too high I would reduce it. She said the price was perfect.

Continuing with the wealth affirmations, the next morning I received a letter saying I was due extra income.

Thank you Richard for sharing your wealth of knowledge. When we apply it to our lives, we let go of limiting thinking and open our lives to our true blessings.

Every day what you send me is just what I need, especially this email. Every subject is crucial and inspires me to go forward. Thank you so much for your wonderful thoughts.

My life is already improving, thanks to you and your Wonderful teachings. I feel like a "poster child in progress"
Lol!!

I am already looking forward to your seminar and maybe trading success stories with others there.

I do love "spreading the joy" AND "sharing the wealth".

I am so happy! THOUGHTS REALLY DO MAKE YOU WEALTHY!

I think your efforts are invaluable in making this world a better place. As someone who has learned to revere life and now practices these philosophies in the corporate sector, I resonate with you on the topics of abundance, health, wealth, and happiness. Thank you for spreading your positive messages to others!

This book Thoughts Make You Wealthy is amazing information for anyone looking to better their lives. This is perfect for anyone wanting blueprints/instructions on how to make, keep & succeed with their New Years resolutions & life goals.

Thank you Richard Levy! You are a blessing in my life.

Jan

Hello Richard!

I want you to know that I received your beautiful book before Thanksgiving! I want to thank you so much for sending me a copy. It is truly an honor. I have started reading it and love it! It is so wonderful to read that even in your childhood and youth, you had such a positive mindset and outlook on life. I did not finish your book as of yet. My father had a setback and required hospital care, as well as much more of my attention. I anticipate to put time aside and enjoy reading the rest of your wonderful book.

Richard, Congratulations on your new book and on the transformation to all those who will definitely be touched by reading it!!

Thank you again,
Veronica

I ordered it, SOOO Excited, Thank you Richard for all your heartfelt hard work and generosity it took to write this book, you are making the world a better place.

Karen

Congrats Richard!!! I will be getting a copy of your book for myself and one for my daughter. Love your work. Thanks for being such an inspiration to me and many others.
Empres

I would like to thank you for the help and inspiration that you lend to people like myself. I stumbled on your web site a while back. It has improved my daily life in a way that I have become happy throughout the day. Before I was just getting through the day dreaming of how to become more successful and possibly owning my own business. I am beginning to realize that happiness and peace comes from within. Then and only then will this be transferred to wealth and well-being. Thank you.

Dave

Dear Richard,

You always find the right answer to all my questions! The exact message at the right time.

The most important thing is that when I practice what I learn, there is perfect flow in my life that allows me to achieve all my goals.

All my gratitude dear friend! Thanks a million!

Renee

Dear Richard,

I am very happy and excited for you! Publishing a book is HUGE in itself, but to publish one that has such positive life changing tools, influence and philosophies is truly an amazing thing. Congratulations! Thank you so much for all you are doing. I read your messages and apply them to my life daily. I tell my friends about you and your positive messages and someday I hope to be able to come and hear you speak. I stumbled upon you during a random Google search. Coincidence? I don't think so. Please keep your messages coming.

God Bless you and yours.

Sincerely,

Janice

Richard, I know you get these, but I had to comment. This one and the other daily reflections were awesome and exactly what I needed to hear

You are a blessing, Richard. thank you. My life is changing in such a positive way. I can feel the anxieties drifting away, as if the tides ebb is taking them further and further away.

Hi Richard,

I have to tell you that some of the things you write about have changed parts of my life. I am stunned by the response I have received from various (and unexpected) people. Kindness, respect and friendship.....all ever since I sent sincere love, prosperity, and basically good things to a family member who has much disdain for me. I am so grateful to you. Thank for teaching me these very important yet very small acts of selflessness. I think I'm finally beginning to 'get it'.

Forever Grateful,
(Name Withheld)

Richard,

I just wanted to take a moment to say thank you for your daily emails. They are my constant reminders to keep my thoughts focused on what it is that I need stay focused on.

I am finding that every day I am becoming more and more aware of my thoughts and directing them (back) to right place. Your service is invaluable to me, and I am sure to many others. It is said that you receive in return to what you give out. I would venture to say that you are quite wealthy with a great abundance of love, wealth, prosperity and health. Kudos. I am definitely one sending you some love energy and gratitude in return.

I see your seminars offered around the country in different places. However, I've not seen one in Northern California or the bay area. I hope that you will be planning one here very soon. I know you will find a lot of like minded people here to spend time with and whom would enjoy your messages.

Best to you and your loved ones,

Sincerely grateful, Preston Mitchell, Northern California

Richard, how timely for me. In my morning readings, of which your "Thoughts" is now a consistent part, there were two devotions on the subject of forgiving. A lawyer I know whose life appears to be a complete wreck on account of drug addiction comes to mind. I now -- right now -- change the way I think of and for him. Thank you, Richard. Thank you, God. Richard, thank you for the Daily Prosperity Messages. This is great confirmation of God's word. We have to meditate on the word of God to be successful and it is up to us to cause that success. Richard,

I've saved my daily e-mails for the last month. Today, I went through, re-read them all, and wrote down quotes that resonated with me on index cards to look at each morning as I walk through the next month. Very powerful to re-read, see where applying principals came easy, and where I've been resisting. Thank you so much for those emails every day. They have been such a great way to start my day!

Dear Richard,

I so enjoyed meeting you and participating in your workshop on Saturday.

I was very impressed with how beautifully organized your material was and how clearly you imparted the concepts. I appreciated how you created a sense of community among the participants and addressed the individual challenges each person faced, offering practical, positive advice and specific affirmations tailor-made for that person.

Your visual aids were very helpful, and I understand how your lessons will benefit each person on an ongoing basis. You gave us specifics on how to start and end our day and how to perceive the world and interact within it during all those hours in between! I know whoever attends future seminars will experience greater success and prosperity. I'm very glad I was there!

Best,

Good morning, Richard: I want to share a little story with you apropos your message today.

Got a snarky e-mail from one of my step-kids last night. It hurt my feelings, to be honest; I wasn't sure how I would deal with responding, and went to bed a little unsettled. I didn't bother to tell his mom (my wife) the story.

Then along comes my pal Levy, and TMYW, and the perfect solution - forgiveness, understanding, love.

“Choose to forgive them and yourself. Choose to let go wanting to be right or the winner of any dispute. Sincerely wish the other person love, happiness, and abundant life. Sincerely wish them the freedom to live and be as they wish to be.”

How sensible, simple, effective. Why is it, though, that the first reaction to personal criticism and rejection is anger, resentment, fear, self-doubt?

Maybe a better way is understanding, acceptance, love and forgiveness?

Keep those great words coming, Richard, and have a blessed day.

Dear Richard,

I am deeply, deeply grateful for your kindness, compassion and guidance.

I was blown away when you mentioned anger, because I have carried so much anger within me for so long, and I really never knew why. I am constantly 'angry' with everyone and everything and as far as my debt is concerned -- it has grown bigger than its ever been because I have relied on credit cards to finance my day to day living for the past 3 1/2 years!.

Now that you point out the anger component, it's as if you opened a darkened window and I at last I am able to finally see "inside"!

I will faithfully follow these steps of positive actions, deeds and thoughts ...visualizing, writing, avoiding/refraining from negative influences, news, conversations and people--transforming my life by renewing, reprogramming and restructuring my thoughts, attitudes and subconscious mind.

I also look forward to seeing you next month in LA...I will begin my visualizations now!

Thanks again for your generous and beautiful spirit.

I will certainly let you know how things are progressing with me.

Kind blessings,
Phyllis F. San Francisco, CA

Richard: I got your insightful email - am carefully studying it and figuring out how to incorporate it into my life - I believe your method is going to be the catalyst that will finally get me over this life long challenge. I've tried so many times and so many workshops, tapes, etc. etc. etc but I never seem to GET IT and of course it doesn't work. Will keep you updated as I progress to success! Have a wonderful week.

You'll love this, Richard.
I had opened and read another e-mail this morning, just before I read your Daily Prosperity Message. Can't remember what the first e-mail was about, except it ticked me off and made me cop a very negative attitude.
Then I read your Prosperity Message. And I had to laugh at myself. Gotcha, I said. Rather, Thoughts Make You Wealthy "got me."
Thanks, pal, for helping me stay on track :)

Richard, thank you for your newsletter. Thoughts make me wealthy. This information is so valuable and practical. It is simple and it feels good. It is biblical. I am a very serious thinker and this good news that you print is food to my heart.

This food makes me fall in love again with the challenge of finding love in every conceivable situation and/or circumstance. I think on love things cast my cares upon the Lord of Lords and "Just Love."

Sometimes it is most difficult but I practice it every day. I will succeed. It is my desire to succeed at Love, for God is Love.

Again, thank you.

Beautifully said, again. Thank you, Richard. May you enjoy a wonderful day.

Richard,

I am feeling more abundance in my life. I feel it's attributable to focusing my thoughts on the affirmation "I am wealth". The results: my wife and I just received $30,000 from an insurance company; I was recognized as employee of the month; finally, I lost a significant amount of unwanted weight.

Richard, I am B.B.from India. Please accept my endless thanks for the advice you sent to me. It is like a soothing ointment on the burning wounds. Thank you. Richard, an incidence I want to share with you happened just a few minutes ago. On my mobile phone I received a message regarding a refund of Rs. 555. It was all of a sudden, out of the blue. The same happened some 20 days back: Rs. 98 that time. Richard, how should I take these incidences? Are these from the Universe as a reward for prosperity thoughts??? Please tell me.

Hello Richard

I feel so good. I have learned to 'CHANGE' my thoughts and you're correct: our thoughts do play an important role in our lives every second and minute of the day. I choose to think positive—no matter the circumstance. Those closest to us can drain our energy process. I know because I am or as some say "too nice". I respond, "I am just me". It's all about LOVE. You must: 1.FORGIVE 2.WISH THEM WELL 3.THEN MOVE ON.

I've learned that it's ok to say NO and that I am not going to please everyone—no matter how hard I try. RICHARD—I've learned to release them and wish them well. You taught me that. That is so important to me because, I'm the kind of person who would keep peace at any price. It's ok to keep peace, but everyone must be accountable for their own behavior. I still have the last word. LoL! I would say, and will say, "IT'S ALL ABOUT LOVE"

My very dear friend, Richard Levy has a wonderful daily tool to keep you on tract with your thoughts on a daily basis. This week's message is very pertinent to the coming Holiday Season. The stresses that come hand in hand with this time of year can get you down and you might reflect back on all your accomplishments without the enthusiasm and celebration you have earned. Your thoughts determine your life and with the Holiday Season approaching, staying in a positive energy field is so important to ensuring your happiness and joy. Order yourself a fabulous month of December and enjoy the magic and enchantment that the holidays spread throughout the world.

PS – give yourself a gift of these wonderful thoughts coming to you daily from Richard Levy @ www.thoughtsmakeyouwealthy.com

Richard,

Your words of wisdom have already made a subtle, yet very notable difference in my life. I feel, and see it in the space between me and others, and how that energy creates expansion, from contraction, and the delight of seeing more sweet and vulnerable openness around and in my projection, and then in the vibe of others, where doors were closer to being more shut than open. When thoughts and perspectives touch and nurse me and others around me towards a greater sense of joy and freedom, I sense true purpose.

That makes my day, every day, and you help.

Thank you for all you have brought, and continue to bring into my life.
T.M., Philadelphia

Richard,

My nephew found his perfect mate doing exactly as you suggest. His list was three pages long. He was waiting to get off the elevator to go into his medical office, and Kim came out of the office, passed him, and got onto the elevator. Jerry went to the receptionist and said, "Who was that?" The receptionist didn't know, but she knew which doctor the young woman had seen. Having this as a fallback, he took the next elevator to the lobby. Kitty hadn't left the building yet. He hurried up to her, introduced himself, and invited her for lunch. After they had lunch, he invited her to have dinner with him. That was thirty years and four children ago. They are a magical couple.

Richard,

I continue to enjoy your daily affirmations more each day and month. Thank you Richard. It's so very powerful, fun, insightful and empowering to my collective vibrations, and to all in my space.

I could go on with many joyous examples, but if I may, here is just one;

Hurricane Irene in it's furry filled our unfinished basement with a foot of water in hours. The very expensive geothermal HVAC units we have were going under and Julie and I stared in fear at the silent electric sump pumps that slept in the darkness of what turned into a two day power failure.

Local news and social networking all stated that there were no portable generators available anywhere in the north east. I smiled at Julie, put on dry clothes and drove calmly to the home depot.

The orange clad greeters apologized for not having any generators left, and then I saw it. Right in front of me. I asked if it was sold or broken, and with astonishment he said, "no its brand new and must have just came in".

Within a day our basement was dry with the purr of this glorious new generator and we sustained only minor damage.

The busy universe, yet again, had the time to smile at me and those around me.

With your help the once dusty connection I had with the universe has been buffed up, and the flow of my already good fortunes just seems to intensify Richard.

I enjoy your distinctions between wealth and success because your clear validation of the value of each is what I believe in so deeply myself. As I am trying to help others not fear wealth and success but rather to invite it in by finding it within themselves, is in large part my mission statement I share as a contract with my god.

In love of life always,
T.M. New Hope, PA

Richard- I am really impressed with your new letter. Can you send me a couple of thousand $!! HA!

Really this looks and reads great ...thanks for sending it to me . I can use help like this. Not for the money but, for my being. I don't sleep more that a few hours and it is really messing with me. I will be a loyal reader.

I have noticed a big difference in my self realizing this exact inner flaw, I always wanted to prove that I had experienced more, more educated in an area than others; had the been there done that kind of attitude. It was difficult to come face to face with this personal glitch but once I did I noticed my relationship with others flourished and had more substance.....THANK YOU RICHARD!!!!

My natural approach to someone else's happiness or success is to feel grateful for their situation and then think to myself "IF IT CAN HAPPEN TO THEM THEN IT CAN HAPPEN TO ME!"
