Fresh, new plantings

Kai Muller, rural Russell, at left, a member of the Sunrise Kiwanis Club, assisted May 5, in planting new flowers in pots and garden areas along Russell's Main Street. The Sunrise Kiwanis Club and the Ruppenthal Middle School Builders Club performed the plantings as a community service project. Pictured assisting Muller with some flower planting in a small garden area at the Russell County Courthouse is Roger Anderson, Gorham, the brother of Sunrise Kiwanian Pam Nowak, also of Gorham.

Flowering of service

As a community service project, members of the Sunrise Kiwanis Club and the Ruppenthal Middle Builders Club planted new flowers into garden beds and pots outside the Russell County Courthouse and outside a number of businesses along Main Street in Russell. The Sunrise Kiwanis Club sponsors the RMS Builders Club. Pictured performing some planting are Sunrise Kiwanis Club member Pam Nowak, Gorham; and RMS Builders Club member Carolanna Carrillo, Russell.
