A time & place away from the rush...

"Be Not Afraid!"

Wounds & Healings

As Christians we experience pain in our churches as well as in our own families. The people and events of our lives can leave wounds that influence us the rest of our lives. "In returning and rest you shall be saved; in quietness and in trust shall be your strength," (Isaiah 30:15).

In this beautiful setting, we will explore why Elijah and Jonah felt most alone at key times of their lives and then discover the many sources of healings Jesus offers to us.

Each participant is asked to bring a picture, poem, sculpture, sheet music or YouTube video that has been a source of comfort or healing.

Our time will be divided among small groups of three; whole group time (including Communion); and time for solitude (by the lake, on the porch, having coffee with another participant, sitting in front of the fireplace or strolling on nearby trails).

Invite a friend,
fellow church member,
prospective member,
your church staff, or family member!
