Bill Treadway has led multiple retreats for the Maumee Valley Presbytery as well as heading an ongoing series of “Sacred Conversations” day retreats focused on prayer in community. In May, he will have completed his final gathering at Stillpoint, a formational program for spiritual direction that takes place at Ghost Ranch, NM. He also provides spiritual direction to participants in Tiffin, OH. With his wife, a PSUSA pastor, he is exploring the intersection of individual and communal spiritual formation. In Bill’s past life he worked for a Christian publishing company. He is the proud father of two teenage daughters and friend to an aging canine companion.
