

We're proud of our new home

(Now we need you to make a sound investment and help with some of the furnishings!)

Dear Fern Creek Alumnus,

Alumni have been proud to call Fern Creek High School our home since 1923. (Why do you think they call it Homecoming?) But now we have a new reason to be proud: After almost 65 years, the Fern Creek auditorium has been named Alumni Auditorium.

We are pleased to partner with JCPS on the more than $300,000 renovation of this historic venue. Alumni Auditorium isn't just our home, it's the home of the Alumni Hall of Fame, the Fern Creek Theatre, the Sam Cilone Sr. Stringtown Cavalcade, and countless other school and community functions. We're even planning to open a student-run movie theater later this year complete with ticket window and popcorn!

The Fern Creek Alumni Association has committed to spend more than $60,000 to help with a new sound system, painting, signage and other AV equipment for our new home.

But we need your help. (Think of it as a housewarming gift!) We're asking for help from everyone who ever had their class ring ceremony, or a TV Math class, or either acted in or watched a play here, or watched an orchestra or choir concert, or anyone who remembers any of the hundreds of memories you made in our auditorium through the years.
