

“The Way” Song Review

By: Dana Shiloni

I really enjoyed song “The Way” by Ariana Grande featuring Mac Miller. This song was released on March 25 in the USA and March 26 worldwide. On the first week while this song was out, it was already in the top ten of the iTunes chart.

“The Way” is about a girl and a guy. The girl sings her feelings towards the guy and then he raps his feelings towards the girl. I think the lyrics are meaningful and many people can relate to it.

I think the music for this song suits it perfectly because it is a slow song but at the same time its fast and enthusiastic.

The song is very catchy and fun and it’s one of those songs that you want to keep listening to until you learn the lyrics.

Mac Miller’s rap is more of a slower rap, which I enjoyed because it was not too loud that it made you want to stop listening. Instead, it was more meaningful and calm.

Ariana’s voice was just incredible in this song, which made the song even better. It sounded very soulful, but yet it was still in the pop genre.

Overall I enjoyed “The Way” very much, and now it is my favorite song! Hopefully you will go and buy “The Way” now!

I rate this song a 5/5 stars.
