

The REALLY Cheesy Rallye/Tour

Mark your calendars for June 30th

Tour Fee: $ 5.00

Tasting fee: probably $10 (still negotiating!)

Starting location: Marin county, just over the Golden Gate

OK folks. Here's the deal. On Saturday June 30th, we'll be exploring Marin & Sonoma's finest products: Cheese! At least that's my opinion. And I love their wine. The more I worked on setting this Rallye/Tour up, the more I started craving cheese. Did you know there are 8 different types of cheese? Or that cheese can be made from just about any animal you can milk? That being said, we will limit our tasting to Cow, Sheep and Goat cheeses while we visit the finest examples of artisans on their farmsteads.

We'll start just over the Golden Gate in Marin at 9 AM and travel back roads up the east side of Tomales Bay making selected stops including lunch. I've been in contact with a number of "appointment only" farmsteads. Our tour destinations will be selected after we taste test at each one and pick the winners. I pretty much HAD to pick one already. The owner is a BIG Porsche fan and looking forward to an invasion of cars!

To sign up or for more information, contact me at: peter_ridgway@sbcglobal.net
Or call: 408-255-6637

Further details will be in the LPR calendar by mid-month and sent to anyone interested by email.

What's This? Information you learn during the tour will be essential to winning the Rallye!