

The Arc Resource Library

Online & in the Arc Administrative Offices

The Arc Resource Library is a library both for and from the Southeast Texas Community. We have put together a great set of resources but, we are looking for YOUR help in adding to the selection. In the Arc's library, we have a binder for parents, educators, and professionals to write down any tips, tricks, and important information they would like to share with those who visit our center looking for answers to questions on intellectual and developmental disability services in our community.

The Arc of Greater Beaumont is proud to announce the opening of the Arc Community Resource Library. This library is intended to provide information about intellectual and developmental disabilities to the Southeast Texas Community. We offer both an online center and a comfortable reading room where you can sit and browse our online library or check out one of our books. Come visit us to see what The Arc can do for you!
