

Testimonials from our Awesome Buyers!

Hilton Head Home: You must give them a call. If you are thinking of property in Hilton Head, let them help you sort through what is available and you will be surprised what they will find. You will get the best treatment and attention. Robbie and Jane are a "Can Do" team. They will do anything possible to help you in your search, negotiation and purchase of a property. They are the kind of people that go the extra mile - or ten - and we would love to work with them again. You are very fortunate if you choose them and before you know it, you have a Hilton Head Address! Elizabeth & Keith Mace

Hilton Head Home - Site: We just received your note. Thank you so very much for helping us find the property. We were just thrilled to work with so professional a team. We were also delighted with Jeff and his team and appreciate you recommending his law firm to handle the closing. Everything went very smoothly. In the meantime, we wish you continued success! Walter & Mary

Hilton Head Home: "There is nothing equal to human creativity, human caring and human will. We can be incredibly generous, imaginative, and open-hearted. We can do the impossible, learn and change quickly, and extend instant compassion to those in distress. And these are not behaviors we keep hidden. We exhibit them daily. How often during one day do you figure out an answer to a problem, invent a slightly better way o...f doing something, or extend yourself to someone in need? Very few people go through their days as dumb robots, doing only repetitive tasks, never noticing that anyone else needs them. Look around at your colleagues and neighbors, and you'll see others acting just like you—people trying to be useful, trying to make some small contribution, trying to help someone else. Thanks Robbie Bunting, my real estate agent, for being who you are, a real stand-up guy. I was truly touched by your selfless offer today." Karen Verrechio

Hilton Head Home: As a Licensed Real Estate Broker in Tennessee, and former Chairman of the TN Real Estate Commission, I was pretty picky when it came to working with a Realtor in SC. Robbie and his assistant Jane were very professional and knowledgeable when we purchased our Hilton Head home and also when we listed our property for sale with them. We have referred a number of people to them over the past 4 years. Bobbi Gillis

Villa and Home: Robbie not only helped us purchase a superb home on Hilton Head Island but sold a previously owned townhouse very quickly to help us have the funds to purchase with cash and make a far better deal. His guidance throughout both transactions have been very attentive and professional. We already have referred Robbie to our friends and relatives for any future home searches knowing that they would receive the same professional attention that we received. Don & Tracie Highley

Hilton Head Home : We consider ourselves more than fortunate to have landed on their website and even the unexpected customer service after closing is appreciated. My wife and I have bought and sold beach properties many times during our 31 years together and have never had a such a wonderful experience and stress free from start to finish. Ric & Sue Vardy

Hilton Head Home: We met Robbie and Jane through a friend of ours that recommended Robbie Bunting to us. Robbie and Jane were a pleasure to work with. They assisted us through every step of the process. Being out of state and not local can complicate the purchase process for the buyer. Robbie and Jane assisted us with arranging for our mortgage, purchasing insurance even ensuring that the inspection punch list items were addressed appropriately. Once we closed they continued to assist us by coordinating our first return to Hilton Head Island introducing us to a decorator, a rental company and the regime manager. I would recommend them to future purchasers without hesitation. Joe and Linda Rowey
