Jennifer Lippin Rexinis

Jennifer Lippin Rexinis is a director of investment products in the MFS Investment Management® (MFS®) Advisory Resources Group. In this role, she serves as a product specialist, providing information on portfolio positioning and strategy and serving as a liaison with portfolio management for MFS' international and global equity strategies.

Jennifer joined MFS in 2006. Prior to serving in her current position, she was with Financial Research Corporation, where she served as director of the subadvisory services research group. During her career she has been responsible for communicating portfolio positioning and strategy to both institutional and retail clients and prospects, researching market trends in the industry, and performing equity analysis.

She began her financial services career in 1995. Jennifer earned a bachelor's degree from Brown University and a Master of Business Administration degree from Northeastern University.
