

2012 Sponsorship Opportunities

2012 will be the 14th year of the Annual Dairy Ingredients Symposium. Attendees include professionals from the dairy ingredient community, from all areas of food and beverage manufactures, suppliers, plus academics and government. It's the food and beverage industry's best opportunity to access comprehensive new technical and marketing information on dairy ingredients. Serving as a sponsor provides the opportunity to improve, support, and reinforce your company's image as well as give the chance to meet with delegates representing companies and countries you may not have previously had the ability to.
