

Hamad Medical Corporation in Doha, Qatar is seeking candidates for the following positions within their department of Internal Medicine:

Vice Chair for Faculty Affairs
Head, Section of Hospital Medicine
Assistant Chair for Ambulatory Internal Medicine Services

Hamad Medical Corporation (HMC) is an integrated and growing health care delivery system that currently provides 90-95 percent of acute and sub acute care services in Qatar. With over 17,000 staff, HMC is one of the largest health providers in the Middle East. HMC's portfolio includes eight hospitals, a comprehensive ambulance service and Home Healthcare Services. HMC is a close partner of Weill Cornell Medical College at Qatar (WCMC-Q) and together they aim to develop into an internationally competitive Academic Health System.

With a growing population of approximately 1.7 million people, Qatar is an independent state in the Southern Arabian Gulf. Doha is the capital city of Qatar and is truly an international city, with a large expatriate community, that retains its historic character along with a spectacular skyline and modern infrastructure. The city is an important cultural and commercial center with a modern international airport that links the country to the rest of the world.

Successful candidates must be fluent in written and spoken English; hold a medical degree from an accredited school of medicine and board certification recognized by the American Board of Medical Specialties or a comparable organization in another country of a similar status acceptable to HMC. In addition, scholarly activity in research and/or education acceptable for appointment at Associate Professor/Full Professor is required.

Witt/Kieffer, an executive search firm specializing in healthcare and higher education, has been retained to assist with this search. Candidate nominations, CVs/resumes and potential interest should be directed, via email, to HMC's retained executive search consultants at HMCInternalMed@wittkieffer.com.
