

World of Outlaws Invade California

They call themselves the Greatest Show on Dirt! Five time and defending national champion Donny Schatz, Sammy Swindell, and Steve “The King” Kinser will go wheel to wheel with former national champ Jason Meyers from Fresno and west coast titleholders Jonathan Allard and Tim Kaeding, and other top teams from Northern California.

This Friday, March 22, the World of Outlaws tour will make a stop in Stockton, California. Tony Stewart will be piloting his winged sprint car against the regulars of the series at this event. Located at the New Stockton 99 Dirt Track on the San Joaquin Fairgrounds, this venue is sure to spark some new rivals as they set track records. The Noceti Group along with DirtCar have planned a full day of excitement including a car show and live music. Gates open at 1pm. Racing starts at 6pm. You can purchase Stockton 99 World of Outlaw tickets at dirtcar.ticketforce.com/99. More information about this and future events at New Stockton 99 Dirt Track

The World of Outlaws to open Calistoga Speedway’s 76th season on April 6. The track is freshly groomed and re-graded for more side by side racing and more speed as the nation’s best touring sprint car teams take on the best in California. It’s the best against the best on the only high speed half mile oval in the Wine Country. A $45 reserved ticket also gives you a complimentary fan pit pass so you can get up close to all of the stars of the World of Outlaws tour during their only appearance in the scenic Napa Valley. THE INFIELD SHOW IS BACK AT CALISTOGA. From your grandstand seat, you will get a bird’s eye view of all the action behind the scenes during this year’s World of Outlaws race. Last year, we made a mistake. This year, we’re going back to tradition. All of the cars will pit on the infield. You can watch the crews make feverish repairs to get a car back on the track, or the chassis magic that can instantly make a car faster in the next race. The action in the pits is a big part of the show and you can catch every minute of the drama from your grandstand seat.
