DRAWING AND PAINTING: A WORLD OF FALL COLOR AND SHAPES

Using pencils, oil pastels, sharpies, watercolor and acrylic paint, students will explore drawing, rubbing and painting techniques. The elements of line, shape, color, value and texture will be emphasized.

INSTRUCTOR: Larry Metcalf Location: OP/PTC
Class Size 12 Tuition: $150 Class Code: 0924

Wednesdays-September 18,25, October 2,9,16,23,30, November 6,13, December 4

10 Weeks Grades 1-5 2:00 – 3:30

SCULPTING IMAGINARY CHARACTERS WITH CLAY

Have fun exploring and creating a world of imaginary characters.

Students will gain knowledge and experience by learning hand-building techniques, clay tool usage, glaze application, and surface design to create a variety of freestanding sculptures. We will look at examples of figurative sculpture to inspire creative thought.

Students will be encouraged to produce drawings to assist in the development of their imaginary characters.
