

LOCAL DEBUT . . . Members of the Torrance Mounted Police, who have been collecting ribbons all over Southern California during participation in various parades, made their debut in Torrance last Monday while riding color for the Clyde Beatty Circus Parade through downtown Torrance. The uniformed troupe has been organized for about a year.