

37th Annual Conference

8:05

New Sherriff in Town: Recent Significant OFCCP Developments and How They Affect Federal Contractors

John C. Fox, Attorney

Fox, Wang & Morgan, PC (San Jose)

Mr. Fox represents companies and tries cases in state and federal courts. He is an across-the-board employment lawyer representing management nationwide. Prior to founding Fox, Wang & Morgan, Mr. Fox was a Partner at Manatt, Phelps & Phillips and at Fenwick & West, LLP and chaired its Employment and Labor Group for over a decade specializing in employment law applicable to high technology companies. Mr. Fox was also previously Executive Assistant to the Director of the Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs (OFCCP), U.S. Department of Labor, where he was responsible for all enforcement and policy matters.

Mr. Fox donates his time, pro bono, as General Counsel, to a battered women's shelter, Women's Crisis Support Defensa de Mujeres, in Watsonville, CA. He also donates his time as General Counsel to Waste No Food, which has created a technology solution to helping feed the homeless in Silicon Valley. He lectures often and has published widely on a variety of employment law subjects.

Mr. Fox is now writing a monthly column, "The Fox OFCCP Report," about OFCCP developments for InfoSoft Group, Inc., a local network of employment and diversity sites covering the entire U.S. and focusing first and foremost on local cities and communities. You may find his latest column at Local JobNetwork.

He is a graduate of George Washington University Law School and received his B.A. cum laude, from the University of California, Riverside.