MAFS staff and seniors celebrates Rakshabandhan

It's the warmth and love of a string that says a whole lot more than an occasion to celebrate the brother-sister relation. And the festival surely hasn't lost any of its significance as Metropolitan Asian Family Service staff and seniors celebrated this fest with full zest and zeal on August 14.

The celebration started with seniors and staff members singing bhajans and welcoming the day.

Mrs. Santosh Kumar, Executive Director MAFS spoke eloquently on the historical and religious significance of the day. She tied rachis in the hand of her staff and seniors urged them to protect each other. Mrs. Kumar also asked them to bond in love, compassion and care.

The festivity culminated with authentic Indian cuisine prepared by MAFS dedicated Kitchen staff for seniors.
