

MAFS locations celebrates the Festival of Light

Festival of lights Diwali was celebrated on November 13, 2013 with joy and gaiety across Metropolitan Asian Family Services centers.

The celebration at Chicago location started with Lakshmi pooja performed by Pankaj Patel, ADS Program Coordinator and Rashmikaben, ADS volunteer.

ADS clients made the celebration more exciting by participating in singing, garba dance and other celebration.

The celebration at Chicago location culminated with authentic Indian lunch serve to seniors by dedicated MAFS kitchen staff.

Other MAFS centers too shimmered in this festival of lights at MAFS Vernon Hills location over 25 ADS seniors participated in festival of light. Staff members who have actively participated and left no stone unturned for the success of the program were Surendra Shah, Kanak Kumar, Bhavna Patel, Harminder Grewal, Ashwin Soni and Jagdish Patel.

The celebration at Vernon Hills started with Arti ceremony and it was followed by other cultural performances. Surendra Shah, ADS Coordinator and other ADS client have performed heart rendering Bhajans.

After the music all the seniors introduced themselves and had pleasant time. They were treated to delicious lunch prepared by MAFS dedicated Kitchen staff members.

At MAFS Niles, Roselle, Carol Stream, Naperville, Algonquin locations ADS seniors and staff members have actively participated in Diwali light. Special lunch for seniors and staff members was prepared in all MAFS locations.

