

MAFS Clients and Staff members participates in Eid and Diwali Celebration

Metropolitan Asian Family Service Chicago location celebrates Diwali lights and Eid Milan festivals on October 26, 2012

Metropolitan Asian Family Service Chicago location basks in Diwali lights and Eid Milan festivals on October 26, 2012. Showing the fine juxtaposition of unity and brotherhood the celebration was equally enjoyed by MAFS's Muslim and Hindu clients and staff members.

Diwali and Eid festivity started with the special prayer ceremony which was performed by Mrs. and Mr. Kumar. Others who have participated in the prayer were MAFS managers, staff and senior clients of MAFS.

Mrs. Kumar in her thought provoking remark thanked her clients and staff members for joining with her in this pious celebration of Eid and Diwali festival. Explaining the religious and historical significance of both the days she said, "Eid and Diwali celebration stand for the victory of 'righteousness over the evil' and requested everyone to follow righteousness to accomplish triumph over the evil. Mrs. Kumar also thanked her Muslims clients and staff members who joined with her in this pious celebration.

Authentic Indian cuisine was served to all the attendees.
