

PACParents Scholarship

PACParents is now accepting applications for its 2013 scholarship. PACParents will award up to three scholarships to Bernards High School theatre arts students. Those students who plan to pursue their interest in theatre arts in college either through seeking a degree in the performing arts or plan to continue their involvement in theatre outside of an academic major are invited to apply. Funds may be used to pay for tuition, texts or college fees. The 2013 scholarships will be $250 each and are funded by contributions from PACParents. Selection of scholarship recipients will be made within the PACParents organization after careful review of applications.

Requirements for Application:

- Cover letter, including all contact information (address, home phone, cell phone, e-mail, etc.)
- Summary of involvement in Bernards High School theatre productions
- Resume of past theatre work
- One of the following:
  - One-page essay about what role the student believes theatre will play during his/her college years and beyond
  - OR
  - One-page essay on a theatre or music experience that has had a big impact on the student

Applications must postmarked or hand delivered to the BHS Guidance Office no later than May 15, 2013. Proof of enrollment in an accredited university or college is required before the check will be issued.
