Summary of the Program:

Global Classrooms is an exciting, hands-on education program serving 7th-12th grade students in Minneapolis, St. Paul and Suburban Area Schools. Students learn about the United Nations and build skills in research, writing, public speaking and negotiation. The classroom learning culminates in a Model UN Conference, where students role-play member states to address pressing international issues.

A Model UN Trainer is expected to:

- Visit participating Global Classrooms schools and classrooms to help teachers implement the program, instruct on Model UN Rules of Procedure, and assist students with skill building (research, resolution writing, public speaking, negotiation, etc.);
- Assist with UNA-MN Global Classrooms Model UN Conferences throughout the school year;
- Work closely with the Global Classrooms Program Coordinator and Associate to carry out program initiatives;
- Attend Professional Development workshops designed for Global Classrooms teachers;
- Assist with other projects as assigned.

Requirements:

- Have experience in Model UN as a delegate in high school and/or college OR be majoring in education / have experience in the field of education
- Be currently enrolled as a college student in the St. Paul / Minneapolis area;
- Be available for up to 10 hours per week to work with others and/or independently;
- Have access to a car or a ride to local schools;
- Have an advanced ability to attend to details, and complete assigned tasks;
- Be comfortable speaking in front of small and large audiences;
- Be comfortable interacting with high school and middle school students.
