

Altered

A Retreat for young adults 19-30

who is God calling me to be? | living into Christ

it's hard being a young adult in church | love and be loved | what does it mean to be blessed | listen to God | where can I meet other young adults | loving God and loving people claiming a faith of my own | what am I supposed to do with my life transformed for the world | living an altered life

April 26 (check in at 7 p.m.) – April 28th (check out after 11 a.m. closing eucharist), 2013

A weekend of exploring your faith, personal growth, meeting other young adults, worshiping God, singing, reconnecting with God, thinking about your life purpose, stepping back from your busy life, and especially relaxing! This retreat is run by and for young adults, led by Episcopal lay and clergy leaders from around the diocese. This event came from the Vocare model but has been up-dated to fit the current needs of young adults.
