

Refresh Rearrange & Redo

The New Year is a time of new beginnings and also a great time to reflect on your home to make sure you have created an authentic home that reflects the needs of your mind, body, and spirit plus the needs of your family. Americans once thought that “traditional” was rooted in matched sets of furniture, saturated colors, and heavy layers of window treatments and accessories. But modern life has changed how we use our rooms and what we expect from them. Learn how to find your personal style, colors, and the other elements involved in making your house reflect you and how to apply them.
