FREE E-WASTE RECYCLING FOR THE MONTH OF OCTOBER

In Celebration of America's Recycle Day November 15th Natural Evolution, Inc. (NEI) is holding a month long Free E-Waste Collection Event. All residential e-waste will be accepted & recycled for Free including monitors and televisions for the month of October.

Beginning October 1st – October 31st Monday – Friday 8-5 & October 6th & 20th from 9-12 residential E-waste can be dropped off at 5701 East 13th St for Free.

Acceptable items include: cameras, computer batteries, computer towers, copiers/scanners, fax machines, keyboards/mouse, laptops, microwaves, phones, printers, power cords, small appliances, UPS systems, and VCRs/DVD players, monitors, & televisions. Unacceptable items are air conditioners, light bulbs, refrigerators and smoke alarms.

"We are very pleased to offer this exciting opportunity to the Tulsa & surrounding communities and are only able to offer this free service through the support of a manufacturer. This is a unique occasion, that which we felt was fitting for the celebration of the upcoming America's Recycle Day in which we will announce how many pounds of E-waste Tulsan's recycled in October." Says Traci Phillips President of Natural Evolution

"End of life electronics present many unique long term challenges to our natural resources as well as potential data security risks if not handled properly, all of which can be mitigated through responsible recycling." states Phillips

As always all e-waste will be recycled according to our zero export, zero landfill, zero international dumping and zero prison labor policies and standards. Natural Evolution is one of 16 US companies that is E-steward, R2, IS14001 Certified.
