

2011-2012 Newly Elected Officials Course

Refreshment Break Sponsorships Available

Support Good Government & the Efforts of Participants in the Course

Choose a session topic or location that matches your company's areas of interest:

Date	Topic	Location
Thursday, December 1	Scope of Municipal Powers	Green Tree Borough
*Saturday, December 10	Budget & Finance	University of Pittsburgh
Thursday, January 12	Public Sector HR	Upper St. Clair
Thursday, January 19	Public Sector HR	Upper St. Clair
*Saturday, January 28	Infrastructure	Robert Morris University
Thursday, February 9	Public Safety	Allegheny County EOC
*Saturday, February 18	Community Development	Duquesne University
Thursday, February 23	Intergovernmental Cooperation	Green Tree Borough
Thursday, March 1	Ethical Decision Making	CCAC, Boyce Campus
*Saturday, March 10	Communication	Carnegie Mellon University

Two sponsorships are available for each of the Saturday sessions as refreshments will be served in the morning and in the afternoon.*

By becoming a sponsor your company will:

- Be recognized as a supporter of good government in southwestern PA through signage at the event
- Be listed among the supporters of the Newly Elected Officials Course through LGA's e-newsletter, sent to more than 4,000 subscribers
- Be recognized for your contribution during the NEOC Graduation Dinner on Thursday, March 25, 2012

Sponsorship are Available for $200 Each

To sponsor an individual session of the 2011-2012 Newly Elected Officials Course, please contact Sarah Welch at swelch@localgovernmentacademy.org.

About the Newly Elected Officials Course: The Newly Elected Officials Course (NEOC) includes informative sessions addressing the complex tasks of running a municipality and prepares newly elected officials to deal with policy matters and the government process, as well as legal and fiscal responsibilities. Program instructors include experienced leaders from local, county, and state government, professors from area colleges and universities, and specialists from both the public and private sectors.

More information is available on our website, www.localgovernmentacademy.org.