

FUNDRAISING 1-2-3!!!

It's a New Year and with the New Year come new goals and resolutions. As always, following a new year, we make promises to ourselves to make a conscious effort to do better! Whether it's volunteering with your local community and or donating/fundraising for a charitable organization.

There's NO time like the present!

One of the easiest ways to get involved in your community is by starting your own fundraiser, and it starts with 3 easy steps. These steps will ensure you're on the right path for creating a successful fundraiser.

Creating your own fundraiser:

Your decision to get involved and make a difference is the first step in your fundraising initiative to do better.

Below you will find three easy steps that will help you create your own fundraising event. All you need is the support from your friends, family, schools and social network to help you meet your goal.

Step 1: What's the name of your fundraiser?
(Try and make it fun - so it catches people's attention)

Step 2: What's your story?
(Behind every fundraiser is a story. What's yours? This is your chance to share with others why you felt inspired to create your own fundraising event)

Step 3: What's your fundraising goal?

Fundraising doesn't need to be a challenging initiative it should be FUN and easy especially since we've revealed our "top secret" steps. With these 3 easy steps, you shouldn't have any problems starting your own fundraiser!

Brainstorm things that you enjoy doing and are good at, and from there, build a fundraiser around that. You can hold:

- BBQ's
- Themed parties
- Yard sales
- Bake sales
- Book sales
- Craft sales
- Car wash
- Dog walking

There's MANY to chose from...the sky is the limit!
