

Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics Foundation

Competitive Essay Award of the Wimpfheimer-Guggenheim Fund for International Exchange in Nutrition, Dietetics and Management 2013 Application

The Wimpfheimer–Guggenheim Fund for International Exchange in Nutrition, Dietetics and Management is offering a $1,000 award for an essay describing an original approach for the dissemination of nutrition, dietetic, and/or management information to an underserved area in the world community. Examples could include: social media messaging (email, blogs, chat-rooms, Facebook pages, etc), distance learning programs as well as approaches that do not require the use of electronic devices. The project described should be easily adaptable to a variety of settings.

The author must be a professional dietitian or nutritionist and be involved in the project.

The essay winner must submit the essay for publication in a dietetics related newsletter or magazine. All applicants must be willing to share with others the ideas mentioned in their essay. Essays should be between five and seven typed, double spaced.

Applications and essays must be sent via email to Blabrador@eatright.org by March 1, 2013.

The application forms and all enclosures should be submitted electronically as one single document. The essay title should be specific and informative, conveying the findings of the project.

Any questions may be directed to Beth Labrador at 800/877-1600, ext. 4821 or blabrador@eatright.org.
