

Interim Writing Center Coordinator

Janet J. (Jaye) Bausser has been named the part-time interim coordinator of the IPFW Writing Center for 2013-14. Savanna Niec, biology graduate administrative assistant, will assist her. Writing Center coordinator Mary Arnold Schwartz has announced her resignation so that she can return to graduate studies. IPFW expresses its gratitude for Mary Arnold's exemplary service and leadership. Her last day will be September 13.

Bausser earned a Ph.D. at The Ohio State University, where she worked in the OSU Writing Center. Her dissertation focused on international business and technical communication. She also holds master's degrees in both English (North Carolina State University) and Library Science (University of Hawaii). She completed the B.A. in history at the University of California, Santa Barbara.

Stevens Amidon of the Department of English and Linguistics and Bruce Busby of the Office for Academic Success will conduct a program review of the Writing Center in conjunction with the planned remodeling of Helmke Library and the Learning Commons. After a national search, it is anticipated that the new permanent Writing Center Coordinator will be identified for July 1, 2014.
