Breakout Sessions

Plus over 20 sponsors are available for questions

Caregivers and aging loved ones, employed caregivers, and employers are invited to a Proactive Elder Care Workshop to become better informed on when to assume a caregiving role. Experts discuss interactive planning in finance, law, healthcare, post-acute care continuum, community services, and bioethics. Discussion in these key areas help caregivers make informed decisions and obtain preferred services. The workshop helps turn employed caregivers into better, more efficient caregivers. These employees, more confident in the care that their loved ones will receive, will be more productive, take fewer personal days, and be more attentive at work.

Free with a suggested $20 per person donation to Council on Senior Services
