

Special Scholarship Honors Legacy of Andy Sozzi

Application Deadline Is March 31, 2013

NAPS Headquarters is pleased to announce the availability of a one-time scholarship in memory of Andy Sozzi, the late NAPS Northeast Region vice president. The scholarship honors Sozzi's long tenure of selfless, dedicated service to NAPS members, the Postal Service and his beloved New York City community.

The two recipients of the Andy M. Sozzi Memorial Scholarship will be announced during the NAPS Legislative Training Seminar in April. The $1,000 scholarships are funded by a donation from John Pescitelli, president of M3 Technology. The winners will be determined by lot. The scholarship checks will be paid in May directly to the recipients' student accounts.

Scholarship applicants must be the children or grandchildren of living NAPS members who are either active or associate members at time of drawing. They must be attending or have been accepted to attend an accredited four-year college, university or, unique to this scholarship, graduate school.

The application form below must be received by NAPS Headquarters no later than March 31, 2013.
